FOCUS: The risen Christ forgives our sins and advocates for us before the Father.

In breaking open the Scriptures for the disciples, Jesus dispels their greatest fears and doubts and gently brings them into the fullness of true peace. Because of this they now have the courage to proclaim him before the world - to become his witnesses. Courage and peace are the hallmarks of the believer, and are the gifts necessary to face the challenges of this world.

Stewardship

The disciples in today's Gospel came to know Jesus in the breaking of the bread. When we share what we have with those who are in need, we, too, will discover Jesus in our midst.

Respect Life "Any woman who has felt a baby stir inside her [and] any man who has seen the tiny heart pulsing on an ultrasound screen, knows that abortion is about ending a life." Karen Kissane

Two Virtual Programs on Spiritual and Emotional Wellness Offered in April

The Dubuque Franciscans' Canticle of Creation Center is presenting two virtual programs about spiritual and emotional wellness in April. At 6:30 p.m., Thursday, April 15, a group of five panelists will discuss how spiritual wellness acknowledges our search for deeper meaning in life. Panelists include: Sister Reyna Badillo, OSF, an Outreach Coordinator in northeast Mississippi; Nathaniel Gee, a teacher at Wahlert Catholic High School; Rev. John Haugen, Archdiocese of Dubuque priest; Jane Heiar, former teacher and Sisters of St. Francis Associate; and Julie Tebbe, Sisters of St. Francis Inviting and Discerning Minister., At 6:30 p.m., Monday, April 26, Beth Norcross will present on the essential way of knowing God and hope in nature and the presence of God in the natural world. The programs can be accessed by Zoom at <https://tinyurl.com/34aprwr>. (Or visit Zoom.us and enter in meeting ID 861 2111 7686 and passcode 528346. The events are free and all are welcome. The two events are part of a seven part series on spiritual and emotional wellness. More events are available in May and June. For more information, visit www.osfdbq.org/canticleofcreation or contact Lori Apel at apell@osfdbq.org or (563) 583-9786.
